FACTS OF COMPLAINT: From investigation conducted in connection with the JULIUS ROSENBERG, ALFRED SARANT, MAX FINESTONE & other related cases in now appears that JAMES WEINSTEIN, in whose apartment FINESTONE resided from January, 1950 until the later part of 1950, loaned his 1949 Buick convertible, serial number 35160786, motor number 55837655 to FINESTONE, who drove JULIUS ROSENBERG to Syracuse to see ALFRED SARANT and make a pick up of espionage material. It is noted that considerable background investigation has been previously conducted in the Sarant case pertaining WEINSTEIN. WEINSTEIN contacted 8-21-50 by SAS HERMAN C. LITTLEJOHN and the writer. WEINSTEIN has refused interview with Bureau agents. Testified FGJ, SDNY on 4-17 and 6-18-51. Scheduled to testify again 6-25-51. Further noted that WEINSTEIN is Organizational Director, YPA and has been connected with several Communist Front Organizations and believed to be a member of the CP.

On August 21, 1950 at the time SA HERMAN C. LITTLEJOHN and SA ROBERT F. ROYAL attempted to interview MAX FINESTONE at his present residence, 418 E 9 Street, NYC, JAMES WEINSTEIN was present in the apartment. He advised that he had opportunity on 4/17/51 while observing DAYTON, FINESTONE and others in room #315 Usch Bld. prior to their testifying before FGJ, SDNY, to lip read part of a conversation between DAYTON and FINESTONE. JAMES WEINSTEIN, when interviewed by Bureau agents produced a N.Y. registration for a 1949 Buick convertible. The records of Columbia University reflect that JAMES WEINSTEIN entered Columbia Law School in September, 1949 and attended his first year classes but did not take final examinations in May, 1950. He re-registered for second year, but being absent, from examinations had given him a mark of failure which, with other grades under the average rule, disqualified him and made it necessary for him to petition in order to enter second year classes which he had not done.

GARY PICKARD, who formerly resided with MAX FINESTONE at 65 Morton Street, NYC, and with WEINSTEIN and FINESTONE at 418 E. 9th Street, NYC, has advised that MAX FINESTONE borrowed WEINSTEIN's Buick convertible on several occasions. It should be noted that FINESTONE resided with WEINSTEIN at 418 E. 9th Street, NYC, from January, 1950 until October, 1950.

O. JOHN ROGGE advised that he is personally acquainted with both JAMES WEINSTEIN and his father. JOSEPH WEINSTEIN related to ROGGE that his son, JAMES, was stubborn and that he, JOSEPH WEINSTEIN had been upset over his son's associates whom the father believed to be radical.

Confidential Informant T-1 [REDACTED] contacted by SA JOHN A. HARRINGTON and ROBERT F. ROYAL advised that JULIUS ROSENBERG has confided that a man (believed to be MAXWELL FINESTONE), borrowed a friend's (believed to be EDWARD JAMES WEINSTEIN) 1949 or 1950 convertible Buick, color black, to drive ROSENBERG to Ithaca, New York, to see ALFRED SARANT and make a "pick-up" of espionage material.

MR. JOHN DAVID LYLE reinterviewed at the NYO by SAS RICHARD T. HRADSKY and ROBERT F. ROYAL on 9/15/51. LYLE again reinterviewed by SA ROYAL On 9/19/51.

LYLE states that he definitely does not recall ever having seen EDWARD JAMES WEINSTEIN at the Morton Street apartment building.

LYLE was unable to definitely recall how FINESTONE and/or PICKARD extended the invitation to himself and the others mention (POINTIERS, HAROLD LINDSEY GATTY and brother RONALD) to use the Morton Street apartment during the Christmas 1949 Holiday period, however, it is possible that the invitation was extended through mutual friends. LYLE stated he recalled that GARY PICKARD returned to Cornell University for a short visit, possibly in October or November, 1949, alone and it is possible during this time that the invitation was extended. He also recalled that JAMES WEINSTEIN and MAX FINESTONE stopped off to visit him for a very short time while en route to Syracuse, New York, during the Fall of 1949 prior to the Christmas Holiday period.

LYLE recalled that WEINSTEIN had driven his 1949 Buick convertible which he described as being a dark green color and had a light tan top. LYLE believed that the purpose of WEINSTEIN's and FINESTONE's trip to Syracuse New York, was in connection with WEINSTEIN's Young Progressives of America work.

LYLE stated that he resided at 418 East 9th Street for approximately two weeks in February, 1950 prior to moving to the 780 Greenwich Street, New York City address. He stated that HAROLD LINDSEY GATTY, GARY PICKARD, JAMES WEINSTEIN, MAX FINESTONE were also residing at this address. He stated that this was the apartment of JAMES WEINSTEIN and MAX FINESTONE.

LYLE stated that he recalled that MAX FINESTONE on occasions would borrow JAMES WEINSTEIN's 1949 Buick convertible while he resided at the 9th Street address with FINESTONE, WEINSTEIN and others.

In this connection he stated that he also recalls that from the Fall of 1947 up until the time which FINESTONE and WEINSTEIN graduated in 1949 from Cornell University that FINESTONE would accompany WEINSTEIN to New York City during a great many of WEINSTEIN's visits to his parents' apartment. LYLE said that FINESTONE mentioned once that JAMES WEINSTEIN's family did not approve of him and it was his understanding that FINESTONE had at one time been interested in JAMES WEINSTEIN's sister, LOIS.

LYLE stated that DANIEL MARIEN was either a Zoology or Biology major at Cornell University, and possibly graduated in the June 1949 class. He is a close friend of both JAMES WEINSTEIN and MAX FINESTONE, and according to LYLE he moved into the 9th Street apartment possibly around the time MAX FINESTONE left or maybe a short time prior to his leaving.....LYLE stated that the last time he had heard anything pertaining to MARIEN he was residing with JAMES WEINSTEIN.

LYLE recalls that FINESTONE mentioned to him prior to WEINSTEIN's purchase of his 1949 Buick convertible that he and WEINSTEIN had considered going to Detroit, Michigan, to purchase this car. It is noted that WEINSTEIN purchased his 1949 Buick convertible at the Glidden Buick Agency in NYC on May 16, 1949.

MISS MELISANDE "NONNY" CONGDON, was interviewed by SA ROYAL on July 25 and September 20, 1951.

She noted that on 1/7/50 she attended a party at the 418 E. 9th Street address, which was attended by MAX FINESTONE, JAMES WEINSTEIN, GARY PICKARD, herself and possibly two or three others.

She recalls that either MAX FINESTONE or JAMES WEINSTEIN drove her from the 9th Street address to her residence in his 1949 Buick convertible. She stated that this date must have been prior to March 10, 1950 inasmuch as she has not been at their apartment since that date.

Concerning the use of the 1949 Buick convertible by MAX FINESTONE, MISS CONGDON advised that MAX had told her that he could occasionally have use of the car and that all he had to do was to ask JAMES WEINSTEIN for it and he would loan the car thereafter.

MISS BETTY BUEHLER, 173 E. 71st Street, NYC, was interviewed by SA ROYAL on July 23, 1950 and again by SA CHARLES P. SILVERTHORN and SA ROYAL on July 24, 1951.

MISS BUEHLER recalls that during the Fall of 1949 she met GARY PICKARD through MAX FINESTONE and that FINESTONE was then looking for an apartment and recalls that he was at that time living with JAMES WEINSTEIN at 211 Central Park West.

In connection with the Central Park West address she advised that in the Spring of 1949, she now recalls having had dinner at the WEINSTEIN home one evening, and thereafter MR. and MRS. JOSEPH WEINSTEIN, JAMES WEINSTEIN, MAX

FINESTONE and herself were driven downtown in possibly JAMES WEINSTEIN's 1940 Buick convertible, color black, to see the play "The Respectable Prostitute. MISS BUEHLER also recalled that during the Fall of 1949, she was advised by MAX FINESTONE that he had visited the WEINSTEINs' Lake Placid Summer home during the summer of 1949, and that he had in some way offended the family. She stated that it was her recollection that FINESTONE had embarrassed JAMES WEINSTEIN's sister, LOIS, in some way and that this led to a personality clash between JAMES WEINSTEIN's parents, his sister and FINESTONE.

MISS BUEHLER recalled MAX FINESTONE had stated that JAMES WEINSTEIN intended to trade or sell his 1949 Buick convertible during the summer of 1950. She stated that she does not recall having ever seen this automobile and did not know of any of the details pertaining to this sale.

MR. AND MRS. NORMAN POIRIER, 638 S. New Hampshire, Los Angeles, were interviewed at the Los Angeles Office on November 21, 1951 by SA CHARLES J. HAGLE, JR and SA THOMAS E. BRYANT.

POIRIER said that he had been in the Navy with JOHN DAVID LYLE and in the Fall of 1948, while attending Cornell University, he met MAX FINESTONE through LYLE. He said he could not be certain but believes he met JAMES WEINSTEIN at the same time. While attending the Fall term of 1949, the POIRIERS resided in an apartment in Ithaca, and said that on several occasions FINESTONE and WEINSTEIN visited them together with LYLE and other students on the campus. POIRIER said he regarded both FINESTONE and WEINSTEIN as "left wingish", both from their conversations and the fact that they participated in the "Young Progressives" group on the campus. POIRIER said that he did not believe that FINESTONE or WEINSTEIN were Communists as neither gave any indication of membership in the Communist Party. POIRIER said, however, that his association with both of these individuals was always confined to social activities, and he had no personal knowledge of their acquaintances or outside activities.

On New Year's Eve the Poiriers said they first went to a party on Eighth Street in Greenwich Village at the apartment of one NAOMI KNAUSS, which was located over a beauty shop. KNAUSS, according to the POIRIERS, was known to both FINESTONE and WEINSTEIN but at that time was dating RONNIE GATTY, younger brother of LINSEY GATTY. RONNIE GATTY was present at this party but none of the individuals staying at the apartment on MORTON Street were present. NAOMI KNAUSS was from Bethlehem, Pa. and is believed by the POIRIERS to be residing there at this time.

The POIRIERS said that during their entire visit they did not see JAMES WEINSTEIN, and it was the vague recollection of MRS. POIRIER that WEINSTEIN had just moved into another apartment, possibly on Twelfth Street, and was staying at this apartment where he was subsequently joined by MAX FINESTONE.

The POIRIERS said that while at Cornell the closest friends of MAX to their recollection, other than JAMES WEINSTEIN, were LEONARD MARSACK who is still at Cornell, and RUBY DIAMOND, who resides in NYC.

POIRIERS stated that WEINSTEIN had a 1946 Buick when they first met him; however, he later obtained a 1949 black convertible BUICK.

The POIRIERS disclaimed any knowledge of conduct on the part of FINESTONE or WEINSTEIN suggesting espionage or other subversive activity. The POIRIERS stated that while WEINSTEIN had no financial worries, FINESTONE was always "broke".

MEMO

RE: EDWARD JAMES WEINSTEIN
ESP-R

On 10/14/52 I telephonically contacted SA Blake Turner, Newark, and after identifying this case in which the Newark Office has conducted investigation, requested he send an agent out immediately to the Emerson Radio Company, 11th and Cole Streets, Jersey City, New Jersey, to verify WEINSTEIN'S employment there and obtain his working hours, type of work, present salary and other information from the employment record.

I told SA Turner that the Bureau had instructed that WEINSTEIN be tailed for one week and that Newark should place WEINSTEIN under surveillance when he leaves the Emerson plant on the evening of 10/21/52 and tail him to a point where he is entering Manhattan at which time they could, via office radio, turn the surveillance over to New York agents who would be standing by for that reason.

I told SA Turner that the Emerson Company provided busses to carry the employees from the plant to a point in Manhattan and that WEINSTEIN might utilize this bus service. I told SA Turner that the surveillance was to be discreet and the purpose was to ascertain whether he attempted to leave the country and also to ascertain his activity and contacts.

I reminded SA Turner that WEINSTEIN was connected with the JULIUS ROSENBERG case and that a surveillance was being placed on him because of the Supreme Court denying certiorari to the ROSENBERGS.

SUBJECT:

EDWARD JAMES WEINSTEIN
ESP-R; Policy; 12A-1452

Reference SAC letter #53-46, Section (J) dated 6/30/53.

Referenced SAC letter directed that each office systematically identify subversives employed in strategic communications, such as Western Union and Radio Corporation of America, in industries engaged in the manufacture of radio equipment, and in wholesale and retail outlets which handle commercial or short-wave radio equipment which could be converted to clandestine use. Further, subversives who are holders of Federal Communications Commission Commercial and/or amateur licenses or of any other operator's license must be considered in connection with this program as to their actual or potential dangerousness. The gist of the referenced SAC letter is to identify persons who, by virtue of their background, employment, training, experience or position coupled with their membership in, association with, or sympathies for subversive organizations, could be utilized in the transmission of clandestine communications, particularly radiotelegraph and radiotelephone.

Bureau instructions contained in referenced SAC Letter are to the effect that "where not already done, separate investigative files should be opened bearing the appropriate characters which, in most cases, will be Security Matter _____, Internal Security _____, or Espionage _____."

The above named subject's file has been reviewed by the writer and it has been determined that subject falls within the standards set out in referenced SAC Letter.
